

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Report of the State Librarian.

Hon. Foster M. Voorhees, Governor of New Jersey :

DEAR SIR—In compliance with the requirement, the following statement of the condition of the State Library is respectfully submitted :

On November 1st, 1899, the number of books, pamphlets, magazines and newspapers was reported to be 52,171. The additions made during the year ending October 31st, 1900, numbered 2,915, as follows :

From the United States Government	937
From other States, the Territories and Canada.....	605
By purchase, for the Law Library.....	365
By purchase, for the General Library.....	357
By donation, books and pamphlets.....	414
By donation, newspapers (daily and weekly).....	73
By purchase, magazines and newspapers.....	44
From the State.....	120
	2,915

On May 25th there were returned to the Superintendent of Documents, at Washington, seventy-four duplicates of Government publications, making the net gain for the year 2,841, and the number of books and pamphlets in the Library at the date of this report, 55,012. Besides the accessions enumerated there are 2,440 volumes which were purchased for or given to the Traveling Libraries, a statement concerning which is given in this report. The increase during the past year exceeds by 591 the greatest number of accessions heretofore reported—in 1895, when there were 2,322 additions made.

The record of accessions since 1878, as shown by the annual reports of the State Librarian, follows :

1878.....	1,691	1890.....	1,079
1879.....	2,212	1891.....	1,440
1880.....	817	1892.....	1,555
1881.....	931	1893.....	1,718
1882.....	752	1894.....	1,529
1883.....	725	1895.....	2,322
1884.....	840	1896.....	1,849
1885.....	1,283	1897.....	1,872
1886.....	986	1898.....	2,284
1887.....	1,338	1899.....	1,688
1888.....	1,369	1900.....	2,913
1889.....	1,390

Of the annual appropriation of $3,000 for the purchase and care of books, $1,409.77 was expended for law books and law magazines, and while there was a decrease of nearly $400 in the expenditures on this account, there is a gain of more than one hundred volumes in the number of law books bought. The expenditures for additions to the General Library amounted to $1,188.83; for subscriptions to newspapers and magazines, $104.70, and for binding and repairing, $296.70.

Notable in the list of additions to the Library during the year is the file of the "New Jersey Gazette," the first newspaper printed in the State. Its publication was begun in Burlington, in December, 1777; and in March, 1778, the printing office was removed to Trenton by Isaac Collins, the publisher, where the "Gazette" was continued, with several interruptions during the Revolutionary War, until November, 1786, when it was discontinued. The State Library owned an incomplete file of the paper. From the two a complete one has been made, and by direction of the Library Commission an advantageous exchange of the duplicates was arranged with Princeton University for books needed in the State Library.

An important gift during the year was made by the late John L. Murphy of twenty-seven bound volumes of the "Trenton Federalist" and the "New Jersey State Gazette," published during the earlier years of the century, and of the "State Gazette" from 1840 to 1861; and Francis B. Lee contributed twelve volumes of the "Trenton True American" from 1801 to 1826. The importance of the contributions lies in the fact that the State Library had no complete newspaper files covering the time up to about 1840, and Mr. Lee's gift nearly completes the Library's file of the "True American," while Mr. Murphy's supplements it and covers the missing years. There is still a gap between the time of the suspension of the "New Jersey Gazette," in 1786, to 1801; but as the dealers in old books have an adage that "all missing books and papers turn up once in ten years," there is encouragement for the hope that in time the State may possess an unbroken newspaper record of its history from 1777 to the present time.

Other gifts worthy of special notice were thirty-nine pamphlets containing Cantor Lectures on Science, from the Society for the Encouragement of Arts, &c., London, England; annual reports of the Ocean Grove Association from 1880 to 1899; thirty-five reports of the proceedings of the New Jersey Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., and thirty-two reports of the proceedings of the Grand Encampment of Patriarchs, from Lewis Parker, of Trenton; and thirteen reports of the proceedings of the New Jersey Department of the Grand Army of the Republic, from H. L. Hartshorn, of Camden, and Capt. E. C. Stahl and E. P. Southwick, of Trenton.

The publishers of seventy-three of the newspapers of the State furnished their journals to the Library, and contributions of valuable books and pamphlets were also made by the following: William Nelson, Paterson; Princeton University; William H. Fulper, Trenton; Rev. Frank R. Symmes, Tennent, N. J.; New Jersey Historical Society, Newark; Mrs. Charles B. Yardley, East Orange; Edward D. Stokes, Mount Holly; Frank Tantom, Ocean Grove; Rev. George Swain, Allentown; H. B. Salter, Kendrick C. Hill and F. W. Gnichtel, Trenton; Hon. W. J. Sewell, of Camden; Forestry Committee of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs; William H. Fisher, Toms River; Rev. A. M. Sherman, Morristown; John F. Dryden, Newark, N. J.; Nebraska State Historical Society, Lincoln, Neb.; J. Ernest Smith, Wilmington, Del.; American Catholic Historical Society, Philadelphia; Henry S. Clark, Newburgh, N. Y.; C. W. Tibbetts, Dover, N. H.; Franklin G. Adams, Topeka, Kan.; E. S. Balch, Philadelphia; Diedrich Willers, Varick, N. Y.; T. W. Balch, Philadelphia; University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill.; Thomas Sturgis, 72 Trinity place, New York; Yale University, New Haven, Conn.; Emile Stocquart, Bruxelles, Belgium; James J. Goodwin, Hartford, Conn.; Ethan A. Weaver, Philadelphia; Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia; New Haven Colony Historical Society, New Haven, Conn.; Finley Acker, Philadelphia;

Mrs. A. E. Douglass, Cambridge, Mass.; Colorado Bar Association, Denver, Col.; American Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass.; Sir John Bourinot, K. C. M. G., LL.D., Ottawa, Canada.

A copy of the "Journal of the Votes and Proceedings as well of the Committee of Safety, at a Sitting in January, 1776, as the Provincial Congress of New Jersey, at a Sitting at New Brunswick, began January 31, and continued to the second day of March following," was acquired during the year. There were 321 books and pamphlets relating to New Jersey added to the Library since the date of the last report; of these 203 were contributed and 118 purchased.

A list of the books and pamphlets in the General Library, relating to New Jersey, is appended to this report in the hope that it will prove a useful aid in securing those which we lack.

The increase over last year in the expenditures for books for the General Library was due entirely to the purchase of the "New Jersey Gazette" file, but in the exchange which is to be made the Law Library will be largely benefited. Of the total amount spent for books, $1,336.27 was for continuations of series already in the Library—$1,065.17 for the Law department and $271.10 for the General Library.

The need of a new catalogue of the contents of the Library is continually felt. As suggested last year, the card system will be preferable, based on either the Decimal or the Expansive classification. Because of the expense which must necessarily be incurred, it will be impossible to procure such a catalogue without aid from the Legislature. When once installed, there would be no cost for keeping it up, beyond the trifling expense for the cards upon which the titles are written.

A new case has been placed in the office of the Librarian during the year. In it are kept some of the older and more valuable books which it would be difficult to replace, and which were in constant danger on the open shelves accessible to the public.

TRAVELING LIBRARIES.

The interest in the traveling libraries continues. Since the date of the special report to the Legislature in February last, fourteen more of the libraries have been made up and sent out, making forty-two in operation at the date of this report. Applications for four more have been received, and will be filled as soon as the cases can be made. There has been expended on this account during the year, $2,215, which includes $215 received in fees from applicants, and which the Commissioners of the State Library, by an amendment of the regulations, made available for use in the work. The amount has been spent for the following purposes:

For books.....	$1,614 53
Postage stamps.....	20 00
For fourteen cases, charging trays and packing boxes	190 03
Express charges, sending and returning libraries.....	111 49
Printing catalogues, blanks, &c.....	240 75
Case and cards for library catalogue.....	31 00
Repairs to books.....	7 20
Total	$2,215 00

On November 1st, 1900, there were 2,440 books belonging to the traveling libraries, 527 having been contributed by clubs connected with the New Jersey Federation of Women's Clubs, and by officers, directors and committees of the Federation, and seventeen by a New York publishing firm. The contributors, in addition to Miss Mary McKeen, Mrs. W. A. Roebling, Mrs. Charles B. Yardley and the Isaac H. Blanchard Company, who were mentioned in the February report, have been: The Rasores Club, Plainfield, 70 volumes; Charlotte Emerson Brown Club, East Orange, 52; Montclair Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, 43; Monday Afternoon Club, Plainfield, 33; the Officers and Board of Directors of the New Jersey Federation, 70; Wednesday Afternoon Club, Montclair, 52; Fortnightly Jaunts Club, Madison, 55; Forestry Committee of the Federation, 34; Wednesday Morning Club, Cranford, 52. Information has been received that contributions of books for two more libraries will be made during the winter.

The libraries are now in use in all of the counties except Camden, Hudson, Middlesex, Ocean and Union. One was sent to Pensaukin, Camden county, in December, 1899, but when it was returned in July there was a request that none be sent in exchange, as there was difficulty in finding any one willing to serve as librarian. Cape May county has five of the libraries, at Tuckahoe, Wildwood, Holly Beach, Seaville and South Dennis; Hunterdon has four, at Rosemont, Stockton, Three-Bridges and White House ; Monmouth, four, at Freehold, Manasquan, Eatontown and Fair Haven ; Warren, four, at Blairstown, Belvidere, Washington and Asbury ; Bergen, three, at Rochelle Park, River Vale and Oradell ; Sussex, three, at Branchville, La Fayette and Hamburg ; Cumberland, two, at Shiloh and Roadstown ; Essex, two, at Belleville and Millburn ; Gloucester, two, at Glassboro and Bridgeport ; Mercer, two, at Lawrenceville and Titusville ; Passaic, two, at Pompton and Bloomingdale ; Salem, two, at Woodstown and Pennsgrove ; Somerset, two, at East Millstone and Bellemead ; Atlantic county has one at Pleasantville, Burlington one at Pemberton, and Morris one at Port Oram.

Three of the four applications that are soon to be filled are from Somerset county (North Branch, Liberty Corner and Raritan), and one is from Allendale, Bergen county. It is quite evident, from the letters of inquiry received, that the people in some parts of the State have not yet learned about the Traveling Library law. No attempt has been made by the Commissioners of the State Library to create a demand for the libraries, but the work has been limited to filling the applications that have been received. Several applications have been made by study clubs for libraries made up of works on special subjects, but as the appropriation has been barely sufficient to supply the demand for the general collections, it has been deemed inadvisable to make up any of the special libraries, the applications for which came from cities which apparently were not within the contemplation of the Traveling Library law.

Thirty-two libraries have been out and have been returned. Three of the number have made two round trips. The following table shows the statistics taken, so far as report has been made. The columns represent the number of the library, the town in which it was located, the volumes of fiction read, the volumes on all other subjects, the total number, the number of readers, the average of books read by each, and the greatest number of times a single book was read :

The table shows that the greatest popularity of the libraries was at Shiloh, Branchville, Blairstown, Pennsgrove, Bridgeport, Pemberton, Hamburg, Belvidere and Washington, where all of the books in the libraries have been read and the circulation has been large. As was expected, the popular taste runs largely to fiction, and in some of the towns that have returned libraries but few volumes of the other classes of books have been circulated. This has been notably the case at River Vale and Rochelle Park, in Bergen county, and at Holly Beach, in Cape May county. In one of the libraries thirty-four books had not been read; in another, twenty-nine; in others, sixteen, fourteen, thirteen, twelve and eleven.

The books are well cared for, and during the past year but one has been lost and one unnecessarily damaged. Both the loss and damage were made good voluntarily by the persons responsible.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY C. BUCHANAN,

State Librarian.
